What is One Ocean Week Seattle?

One Ocean Week Seattle is a premier global convening of industry leaders, policymakers, investors, entrepreneurs, and cultural ambassadors, all focused on the future of our oceans and the maritime industry. Our event brings together diverse stakeholders for a week of groundbreaking discussions, cutting-edge innovation showcases, and cultural celebrations, set against the backdrop of one of the world's leading maritime cities.

Who We're Bringing Together

One Ocean Week Seattle convenes global leaders shaping the future of ocean innovation, climate action, and a sustainable maritime ecosystem. From pioneering governments and blue tech startups to Fortune 500s and frontline communities - this is where the world comes to lead.

- Maritime & Ocean Clusters from around the world
- International Corporates engaged in the Blue Economy
- Agencies & Institutions from around the globe including UNESCO, World Economic Forum, and others
- Industry & Startups led by 1000 Ocean Startups
- Educators & Workforce Leaders including the Seattle Maritime Academy, youth programs
- Cultural & Indigenous Partners including Nordic Museum, tribal governments, community groups
- Foundations & NGOs

What's Happening?

One Ocean Week Seattle is a global celebration of ocean innovation, collaboration, and culture, convened by Washington Maritime Blue and hosted by a community of partners from around the world.

- Flagship Summits on innovation, ocean climate solutions, and sustainable shipping
- Startup & Investor Events including 1000 Ocean Startups Annual Gathering
- Cultural Programs like the 200th anniversary of Norwegian immigration to the United States
- Education & Workforce Events building tomorrow's maritime leaders
- Public & Family Activities that inspire and engage all ages
- International Delegations and sister city/port collaborations
- Tall Ship Events celebrating the global voyage of the Statsraad Lehmkuhl
